

Innocent...On Death Row

Juan Melendez spent nearly 18 years on Florida's death row for a crime he did NOT commit.

In January 2002, he became the 99th death row inmate to be exonerated and released since 1973. His case highlights persistent, pervasive problems in our death penalty system.

Don't miss this unique opportunity to hear Juan's inspirational story of human resilience, courage, faith and forgiveness.

"Juan is a living testament to the injustice of capital punishment and his talk is infinitely more effective than anything I could teach my students"

-Law Professor, Thomas Jefferson Law School

Juan Melendez 6446, a "powerful" film that is "heart-breaking and maddening . . . and stirs the soul."

-Sister Helen Prejean, author of Deadman Walking

Mr. Melendez is a dynamic and exceptional speaker.

His story of injustice is so powerful that it profoundly impacts people all across the political spectrum.
